Freedom of Election in the United States.

The elections this fall in the United States

promise to be of more than ordinary interest.

The large majority with which the city of New York has carried heretofore

by the Democrats, has been followed

the late of the Republicans, and to insure

free play and honest voting President Grant is to surround each polling booth with soldiers, and to see that no undue influence is brought to bear upon the electors. In New York, and will be employed in preserving the purity of the ballot box. A serious picture this for Republican America, one from whom the advocates of the ballot and an extended

franchise in England, may learn a lesson

and draw an inference, not at all favorable

to the idea of the perfection to which

Republicanism in the United States has attained. Gen. Terry, who managed the reconstruction of the State of Georgia

through the ballot box, which was professed

by the layouts of the soldiers, is to command the forces in New York. No doubt his management in returning Republican members of Congress with the aid of United States soldiers in Democratic States in the South, has induced President Grant to give him the command in New York, hoping that that place may be transformed, if not into a Republican city, at least into electing

Republican representatives, not by the voting, then by something altogether unknown in a free country.

The Democrats are indignant at being

thus trampled in their favorite mode of carrying the elections by using the ballot box, and object to others doing by the aid of rifle and bayonet, what they have been doing heretofore by force of numbers.

The result is that the New York Globe and*Herald* urges the Democrats to give up the polls with arms in their hands. To which a Republican candidate for Congress, the Hon. Wm. E. Lanning, replies in the following manner:

"This fraud must cease, though Manly beats should be dropped with blood and the ballot box, and the result should be a blowing, blowing, blowing, that we should be to the polls and vote and not find out

vote overtures by some red-headed giant

of numbers as we do at the polls. (Applauds)

The Globe and Herald are to be the Democrats, for if the election in the city of

New York is broken up by a riot and the refugees of Tammany Hall, in the country will have a full vote and will be a man for Governor of the State."

Another gentleman declared that "he opposed the use of arms in the election of the city of New York, but he would not object to the use of arms in the election of the city of New York, but he would object to the use of arms in the Gambetta's Proclamation.

Paris well supplied.

Prussians occupy Dijon.

Bombardment of Paris with 250 Guns.

French Troops not bound by Bazaine's Capitulation.

TUESDAY NOV. 1.—M. Gambetta has issued the following proclamation to the army:

Soldiers! You have betrayed no doubt.

During three months fortune has been unfavourable to you owing to incapacity and treachery. You are now in front of enemy troops. If you are prepared, under proper guidance, to wipe away our disgrace, forward to me no longer a request for a depot, but for a country, for homes burnt, for families

scattered, France is ready to step up to the front of an implacable enemy.

You have a sublime mission, requiring

every sacrifice, to shame the calculators

who render the army of France inferior.

You, who have justly incurred the stigma of treason at Sedan and Metz, I call

you to avenge your honour, which is that of France.

You are in the army of the Rhine

already protesting against the cowardly surrender and withdrawal from the accused capitulation.

It is for you to raise the standard of France soiled by the late Bonaparte and his accomplices, and recall veterans; but

practice the republican virtues of discipline,

activity and contempt for death. Do not mind the danger of the country. The time of treachery and weakness is past. The destiny of the country is confirmed. You have restored France to serenity, there be free and peaceful citizens of the republic."

TUESDAY, NOV. 1.—Despatches by the "underground route" have been received here

from Paris up to the 27th ult. The city is well supplied with vegetables. Fresh meat is regularly supplied to the soldiers and people. The best of feeling prevails, and there is no opposition to the sentiment that the war must be carried on till Prussia proposes

terms of peace that are at least honourable.

Every night the Prussians attempt to construct a bridge across the river; but

morning the fire from the forts demolishes

their structure.

LONDON, NOV. 1.—The Germans will open the bombardment of Paris with 250

steep guns.

The "Montreuil" announces that no

despatches have yet been received showing that the Prussians have occupied Metz.

Reports that the French troops still at

Metz refuse to be bound by Bazaine's capitulation continue to circulate.

NEW YORK, NOV. 1.—A despatch to the "World" says: A telegram from Brussels

states that a courier is waiting at Cassel to bring to Versailles the result of the conference now proceeding at Wilhelmshöhe between Eugene, the Emperor and Bazaine.

Another despatch to the same paper

says: The departure of the Empress from Cassel was sudden and unexpected. The Princess Imperial will shortly follow her.

Some days prior to her departure the Empress was constantly receiving messages in cipher. Every fortnight a despatcher demonstration on a grand scale. The chances of peace are more remote than ever.

MADRID, NOV. 1.—It is said that a written acceptance of the Spanish crown was received to-day from the Duke of Aosta.

Ireland.

Mr. Fox, a farmer, of Kings Co., Ireland,

was yesterday fired upon and wounded by an unknown assassin. There was a large party of men working in an adjoining field

upon whom he called for protection. They,

however, refused. Some of his neighbors

arrived soon after and succeeded in saving

his life.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—A despatch of two thousand persons waited on Gambetta yesterday to petition for the organization of the scattered

forces now operating independently in various departments. Gambetta answered that the salvation of the people was in their own hands.

The Government could not even supply them

with arms.

The authorities at Tours ascribe the loss of Dijon to the incompetency of Garibaldi's advanced officers and their crude organization,

which relieved the regular French troops at the moment when the latter were most needed.

The "Montreuil" complains of the inactivity of the army of the Loire, which, it says, now numbers 10,000 men. The latest advices from Paris represent the order of the people as unsatisfied. They are impatient for the army to be sent to the front, where the salted provisions will last the city five weeks longer. It is said, however, that the stores are not judi-

cially distributed.

EMINENT MEN OF SCIENCE have discovered that electricity and magnetism are developed in the system from the iron in the blood. This accounts for the debility, low spirits, and lack of energy a person feels when this vital element becomes reduced. The Peruvian Syrup, a protoxide of iron, applies the blood with its iron element, and is the only form in which it is possible for it to enter the circulation.

Midnight Despatches.

THURSDAY, Nov. 7.—The Monitor says: "Prussia, as she would almost consent to the revivification of Paris, now allow Alsace and Lorraine to vote in the election of delegates to the Constituent Assembly, assumes all the responsibility for the conclusion of the war. Prussia, not France, has refused the armistice."

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The Times this morning, in an editorial on the situation in France, says that the armistice turned on the question of free ingress and egress at Paris during the twenty-five days. M. Thiers insisting and Count Bismarck refusing. During the conference between M. Thiers and Jules Favre at Sedan the Parisians maintained a steady fire on the place of interview. The conference lasted over eight hours.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Thiers' first interview with Bismarck, on the 20th, lasted fifteen minutes. When Thiers left Bismarck on this occasion, he was greatly depressed. He then went to Paris, via Sedan, returning on the evening of the 21st, accompanied by Remusat, and bringing the consent of the Government to the armistice on the grounds proposed by Bismarck.

At noon on the 21st, Thiers had another interview with Bismarck, lasting two hours and ending in effecting an agreement, was on one or two points, pending the receipt of powers from the French Government, for which he had sent. Nothing more transpired until the next day, when Thiers had another interview with Bismarck, lasting three hours, returning to the Hotel des Reservoirs in high spirits; but it was whispered among some German officers that he had a conversation with Bismarck, in which he had said that he was not a negotiator, but a soldier, and that he would not accept of negotiations.

A correspondent at Versailles states that he had a conversation with Bismarck, in which he had said that he was not a negotiator, but a soldier, and that he would not accept of negotiations. He also stated that he was not a negotiator, but a soldier, and that he would not accept of negotiations.

Another correspondent, writing on the 21st, says: The French attack was made by the second division of Garde, under General von Bismarck, 6,000 strong. The French, who occupied the village, had a defensive position in the village, but the Prussians at bay for several hours, shooting their officers to the number of 200. Among the French officers killed were Count von Waldersee, of the Augusta regiment, Colonel Siniakowski, of the Elisabeth regiment, Count von Keller, of the 1st regiment of Garde. The Prussians were on the point of a wing before the severe fire of the French, when Bismarck, grasping the situation, ordered the 1st regiment, led by the 1st, which resulted in driving the French back to St. Denis.

The new French works between St. Denis and the French were very formidable. Large numbers of men were working daily to complete them.

A Paris journal of the 21st publishes a semi-official statement of the reasons for Bismarck's retirement. First, failure to hold the common election, and second, the Government's consent to the armistice negotiations. Bismarck is equally alienated from the Prussian party by the French, and the other members of the Government were to Bismarck, asking him to retire, but he refused. He intends to begin the publication of a new paper.

DESPATCHES TO 41 P. M.

VIENNA, Nov. 8.

The 'Correspondence' of this city asserts that the French Government were as it were undecided of its own determination. It is stated that the French Government were as it were undecided of its own determination. It is stated that the French Government were as it were undecided of its own determination.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Bismarck has furnished the following explanation of the capture of the negotiations for an armistice. The French Government has declared through its representatives, M. Thiers, its inability to accept the terms offered on the basis of a cessation of hostilities. The proposal was that the French name a time for holding elections for the Constituent Assembly. The German Government has refused to accept the absolute freedom of election should be respected, even in the territory held by the Prussians. Thiers, thereupon, withdrew to Versailles, and consulted Jules Favre and General Trochu, and in return returned to Versailles without power to accept the German offer.

King William has issued an order that no person whatever will hereafter be allowed to enter or leave Paris. Five passengers have just been captured and will be court-martialed for violation of the order.

Dr. RADWAY has completed one of the most essential discoveries in medical chemistry—in the combination of vegetable substances, for the purposes of PURGATIVE, APERIENT, COUNTER-IRRITANT, ALTERNATIVE PILL, that can be taken dramatized with the breaking condition of the

MEDICAL DISCOVERIES.
Hundreds of medicines are put up under different names, all made alike, in imitation of some successful originator. There are, however, but very few of these medicines that are entitled to any distinctive or exclusive properties. All these common pills are made generally alike, with some active drastic drug as a base.

RADWAY'S PILLS possess properties that no other medicine has called to its possession in either

many preparations of mercury, for centuries supplied in alterative, (and the most popular, for it is administered in 990 cases out of 1000) and Aloes, Gamboge, Common, Antimony, Podoryphyllum and kindred drugs supplies the Cathartic, not only for the medical practitioner, but for all sorts of the advertised PURGATIVE PILLS.

Calomel or Mercury.

In RADWAY'S PILLS you have one medicine that will cure quicker, more thorough and better results than will be given in four three or more of the most frequent prescriptions of the medical practitioner. The proof of this: You are cured with 15 pills at the first dose. The Doctor prescribes Blue Pills or Calomel next so drastic aloeic pill or powders to work off the oil of the blue pill. For the removal of the first the humors of the body is supplied with lungs, kidneys, liver, stomach, spleen, pancreas, gall-bladder, bowels, &c., but when, from any cause, the function of one or more of these organs are suspended, then it is essential to resort to art or science in supplying assistance, as all medicines ever given to the human race have had their origin in such necessity. It is the purpose, therefore, there is none in the arcana of MATERIA MEDICA or CHEMISTRY that secures the important results so thoroughly, HAPPILY, and without GRIEF.

RADWAY'S PILLS

In RADWAY'S PILLS, the true principle of sanitation is secured—not alone to the office of eliminating the feces and excrements from the bowels, but the tumors that are checked or stopped in their passage through the Colon, Kidneys, Lungs, and all excretory and secretory functions, for if these excremental secretions belonging to the skin, liver, lungs, are interrupted in their course, they become products of decay and decomposition, and must be purged from the system.

CONCENTRATED LYE.

A MONSTROUS many imitations of this celebrated article are sold by Druggists in Montreal, for which the name of EATON & CO. is used, and by the way, perhaps can be distinguished as to its effect on the face of soap. Well, this individual whose ideas of Soap and Lye are so much at variance with the truth, has got the thing so largely developed, that he has tried his hand on the majority of people's articles which have been brought out for the last few years. This imitator, this borrower of other people's ideas, trading on the reputation of an old established house, of which, by a strange coincidence, is talking of his extraction on the public in place of the genuine. Purchase with notice that the "genuine" has the subscriber's address stamped on each tin. For sale by the leading Druggists and Grocers throughout the Dominion.

French Correspondence.

Neither peace nor war rapidly for the moment. For the interests of the former M. Thiers and General Burnside have had a trial of low's labor - respecting the latter, the shock of arms has not been severe. Everywhere the atmosphere is highly charged, and the wild thunder of war must leap from many points very soon. Attention is still riveted on Metz and Paris, these places of resistance from the chief offices of debate and hope. The impression is that Thiers will give his sword to France, not to any dynasty or party, that his offensive and defensive warfare keeps the besiegers perfectly employed, leaving the besieged to their own devices. He is believed to be fairly supplied with provisions, and when the period arrives for serving out the last ration, his brave will carry that with him in their final struggle, and by a sacrifice of fifty per cent, the besieged are hopeful of cutting their way to the neighboring cities. As for Paris, she is doing her duty like a valiant warrior,

It is obvious that medicinal viruses from diverse sources would be a useful concept. Take, for instance, the most common virus, the cold virus. It is not only the most common, but it is also the most easily handled in the laboratory, and produces the widest clinical response; or the use of the measles virus, which has been shown to be a parainfluenza, polyinfluenza, influenza, and even, in some cases, these agents as varicella, scarlet fever, etc. The use of the influenza virus, which is a true influenza, is also a possibility. The formation of preparing the different viruses, and the use of them in the laboratory, is a subject that is being studied by a number of people, and it is hoped that the results of this study will be made available to the public. Putney's Ready Relief, Sargamycin and Flu-Min are some of the products that are being used. Putney's Ready Relief is a product that is used for the treatment of colds, flu, and other respiratory infections. Sargamycin is a product that is used for the treatment of influenza, and Flu-Min is a product that is used for the treatment of colds, flu, and other respiratory infections.

Bismarck's Circular.

New York, Nov. 15.—The London correspondent of the World Telegraphs a special despatch from Tours has the following—

Full details of the victory of General d'Aurelle over Von der Tann have not yet been received. The engagement commenced both at the east and west of Orleans on the 10th instant, and was continued until the evening of Thursday. During Tuesday the French drove the Prussians from Orleans, inflicting severe losses upon them, and are now in occupation of the city. Gen. Von der Tann with the remnant of his army is now retreating on the road leading from Orleans to Pithiviers, vainly attempting to force his way through Chateaux Neuf and Metzig, which he hoped to join to a force of Prince Frederick Charles. Gen. d'Aurelle has a force of 30,000 men on the bank of the Loire and 70,000 on the south bank. The destruction of the roads and bridges between Commenge and Orleans has prevented the advance of the army under Prince Frederick Charles. He has about 75,000 men, a great part of whom are probably men of the Marne. After having disposed of the remnant of Von der Tann's army, d'Aurelle will march directly on Paris and will have the German lines between Versailles and St. Germain, while Trochu makes a sortie with 150,000 men to force his way out and raise the siege. Communications between d'Aurelle and Trochu and the government at Tours, is constantly maintained by carrier pigeons.

Advices from Versailles to-day state that Trochu has ordered an additional force to be sent to Tours to prevent another disaster. As attack by the army of the Loire is expected.

London, Nov. 15.—Despatches dated at Tours on Friday afternoon report the statement that there was fighting all day on Thursday near Orleans, in which the French were successful, and that Gen. Pallens occupied the city of Orleans, taking 700 prisoners and 2 guns.

Covering reports are still received from the front. The German army has been driven back to the west of the Marne. The entire army of Charles, as is full retreat.

Tours, Nov. 15, (midnight).—General Pallens reports that he took 3,000 prisoners and 2 guns, and that the French troops now occupy the entrenched camp which was occupied by the Prussians at Chartres.

The things of the victory of the army of the Loire have raised the spirits of the French throughout France. Great numbers of troops are being sent from the south to join the forces of General Pallens.

The North German Parliament meets at Berlin on Monday week to raise money for carrying on the war. A loan is proposed, but the loan has not yet been decided.

Bismarck's Circular. The Prussians are carried on daily in Alsace and Lorraine. Prussians are every day sight in the country.

London, Nov. 15, (afternoon).—An official telegram has been received here from the Admiral of the French fleet saying that foreign vessels will be allowed to enter Hamburg, but at their own risk, whatever that risk may be.

London, Nov. 15.—Hansers are busy of a rupture between Bismarck and Von Rast.

New York, Nov. 15.—A London despatch to the World says Count Bismarck, Prime Minister, arrived at Munich on the 10th and remained there in conference with the Bavarian Cabinet.

London, Nov. 15.—On Thursday, after the battle between Montebello and the Swiss border, Gen. Garibaldi with 12,000 men marched on to Bellinzona.

The Prussians have plundered the little town of Achy, near Bismarck, in the department of the Oise.

Six thousand German troops are now marching on Montebello. The renewal of the bombardment of that town is therefore expected.

London, Nov. 15.—On Saturday morning a special courier arrived from St. Petersburg with a despatch to Lord Granville, said to be of the most serious and pressing character.

Despatches were sent from the Foreign Office last night by special messengers to Vienna, Florence, Copenhagen and Constantinople. The messenger left yesterday, but will be at the Danubian next evening.

Extraordinary activity exists in the army and navy departments. General European complications seem imminent.

A telegram from Constantinople states that up to this (Sunday) morning the Turkish government had received no news of Russia's intention to abrogate the treaty of 1878.

M. Gambetta, in a despatch to the French representative here, said that the treaty of 1878 was not to be renewed, and that the Paris treaty of 1856 indicated an understanding between Russia and Prussia, and he expressed the opinion that England cannot remain passive in presence of such obvious designs.

London, Nov. 15.—It is confirmed that Russia is asked for a revision of the treaty of 1878.

London, Nov. 15.—Count Bismarck has issued a circular to the representatives of North Germany in which he gives his version of the late negotiations for an armistice. The appointment of such a man as M. Thiers by the French, to conduct negotiations, had, Count Bismarck says, excited hopes of propositions that might be successful. King William was even more far from peace than M. Thiers. Count Bismarck proposed a truce for four weeks, termination of the respective armies in the field, in order that elections might be held throughout France. The only effect on the French side of this truce would have been the stoppage of the waste of an mission from their forts. M. Thiers regretted that the revision of the treaty was not provided for, saying it was an indispensable condition of the proposed armistice. This absurd demand to go back two months in the prosecution of the war was impossible. Subsequently no offer of a short truce was made. M. Thiers reported to the members of the Provisional Government by whom it was rejected. The inference is that the French government dared not consult the people, and only made advances looking peace in order to satisfy and quiet the neutral powers.

Morning Despatches.

Paris Supplies won't last three Weeks.

Prussians won't Bombard Paris.

The Policy is to Starve them out.

Garibaldi's Movement.

England sends a Special Minister to Versailles.

London, Nov. 15.—A despatch from Versailles says: The first party of English from Paris have arrived here, the secretary of the English Embassy accompanying them. They report that order prevails in Paris, but that food is steadily rising in price.

A special correspondent of the Tribune at Versailles on the 15th, telegraphs as follows: Trustworthy information represents that Paris supplies will not last exceeding three weeks, and that the Prussians are not likely to bombard the city.

A special correspondent with Garibaldi on the 15th, writes from Astum: Michel with five thousand men is on the road as we started. I asked Garibaldi if he intended to move to Astum as a retreat. He replied curtly that he would not. He said that he was going to have a battle near him. Moreover, we are nearly as far as Dole. He said further that he thought the Prussians would probably occupy the Department of Jura.

Russell, assistant-Secretary of Foreign Affairs, has left London for Versailles on a special mission for the Government.

Parties who have used Johnson's Patent Vestment Protection are in a position to testify to its merits. They render doors and windows perfectly airtight, excluding frost and wind, and dust; summer or winter, and are perfectly safe, and are not injured by fire, rain or snow. They are sold by the Dominion Exhibition, 1870. Agents wanted at each town. Address: J. JOHNSON & CO., 125, Queen's Street, Montreal, P. Q.

A special correspondent of the Tribune at Versailles on the 15th, telegraphs as follows: Trustworthy information represents that Paris supplies will not last exceeding three weeks, and that the Prussians are not likely to bombard the city.

A special correspondent with Garibaldi on the 15th, writes from Astum: Michel with five thousand men is on the road as we started. I asked Garibaldi if he intended to move to Astum as a retreat. He replied curtly that he would not. He said that he was going to have a battle near him. Moreover, we are nearly as far as Dole. He said further that he thought the Prussians would probably occupy the Department of Jura.

Russell, assistant-Secretary of Foreign Affairs, has left London for Versailles on a special mission for the Government.

How Could I?

He carried my satchel to school,
And me through the drifts carried, too;
Could I think why he hugged me so close?
If I could'nt, how could I? could you?

At eve, tied under my chin
My hood with its buttons blue;
Why he gazed in my face could I tell?
If I could'n't, how could I? could you?

He told me my eyes were so black,
The brightest of any he knew;
I blushed and looked down—could I help it?
If I could'n't, how could I? could you?

He left on my cheek a warm kiss,
Then off with the lightning speed flew;
If I could, I'd have scolded and stamped;
If I could'n't, how could I? could you?

'Twas long years ago, and since then
He has spoken words loving and true;

History Repeats Itself.

It is a trite remark that history repeats itself. The present war affords a notable example. Lord Palmerston, writing in his diary long ago, ascribes the overthrow of Prussia in 1806 by Napoleon I. to the all-pervading corruption and maladministra-tion, combined with carelessness, presumption and incapacity, everywhere manifested which had altogether sapped the strength of the nation: "The low moral tone of the Government," writes Lord P., "and the army of Prussia in 1806 has as much to do with the catastrophe at Jena as much

"bad generalship of their chiefs." They were outnumbered and out-generalled: the army, privates and officers, were thoroughly demoralized and mutinous; generally would not lead, and men would not follow. The consequence was overwhelming defeat. Since then seventy years have come and gone, and the positions of the two combatants are reversed. France lies crushed and broken from the very same causes which where France is to day, and where Prussia was 94 years ago.

Thiers, Favre and Bismarck

A correspondent of the 'Liberte' writes from Cassel, says that he has heard from the lips of the ex-Emperor, at Wilhelmshaven, the following remarks on Messrs. Thiers, Favre and Bismarck: He said, Jules Favre has not ability enough to conduct a discussion with the Minister of King William. He will wind him round his finger. I have been quite duped by him; I, to whom everybody agrees in attributing penetration and tactfulness. How then will it be with with M. Favre, whose strength lies in his too great fluency of speech? All the words will be turned against him in the form of an agreement with his pacific intentions. M. Bismarck will throw the responsibility of a refusal on his august Majesty. The talent of this diplomatist consists in his knowing how to throw on others the responsibility of resolutions that have been taken. I was without this talent when at the Tuileries, and I paid dearly for the defect. The Chancellor of the North beat on making all Europe think that it was the French people who demanded that war, whereas, in reality, it was he and who alike wished it. If I had been able to persuade the French that they urged me to this war, I should still be at Paris or I could have returned without fear. The contrary occurred, and my fall, and the capitulation of Sedan are the consequences of that failure. Shortly afterwards, speaking of Thiers, he said: I was beaten at Boulogne because in my simplicity at that time I confided in the Minister of Louis Philippe who had promised me his assistance, but only to draw me into the front. I trouble him in England. He attracted me to Boulogne in order to confine me at Ham. Count Bismarck the ex Emperor, said in conclusion, is an able man, but it is his audacity that makes him so. This is what distinguishes him from Cavour, the greatest politician I ever met. If Cavour had been the Minister of King William the German Empire would have been completed, and that without a shot.

A Murderous Sea Flower.

One of the exquisite wonders of the sea

called the opelet, and is about as large as the German aster, looking indeed, very much like one. Imagine a very large double aster, with ever so many long petals of a light green, glossy as satin, and each one tipped with rose color. These lovely petals do not die quietly in their place, like those of the aster in your garden, but wave about in the water, while the opelets generally cling to a rock. How innocent and lovely it looks on its rocky bed? Who would suspect that it could eat anything grosser than dew or sunshine? But those beautiful, waving arms, as you call them, have another use besides looking pretty. They have to provide food for a large, open mouth, which is hidden deep down among them; so well hidden that one can scarcely find it. Well do they perform their duty, for the instant a foolish little fashlet touches one of the rosy tips he is struck with poison as fatal to him as lightning. He immediately becomes numb, and in a moment stops struggling, and then the other beautiful arms wrap themselves around him, and he is drawn into the greedy mouth and is seen no more. Then the lovely arms unclose and wave again in the water, looking as innocent and harmless as though they had never touched a fish.

-The value of the present iron-clad fleet of England amounts to £5,177,000.

The City of Boston.

A bottle has been cast upon the shores of the west which presumes to throw some light upon the mystery enveloping the loss of the missing steamer City of Boston. Obviously, however, the relic must be ceived with reserve, especially as we are without any collateral evidence of its authenticity. On Saturday a bottle appeared to have come in and been picked up on Cranstock Sands, two miles west of New Quay. On being opened it was found contain four or five pieces of envelope, upon which the following names and words are written in pencil:—"O. Jones, E. Williams," "Seth,—A collision; 403, Greenwich street New York." "Evan Evans Cadinet, Lardelle." "We are lost." City of Boston

We are all sinking, good bye. "I should like my." Written in ink—"Michael Jones Cariboo house, 212 Fulton St. N. Y." There is some other writing in pencil, which correspondent thinks is Welsh. Upon the envelope there are two faint marks.

One is as follows: "Ebenezer, A. Jy. 4, 7 the other ringed mark reads, "London A. Jy. 5, 70." The derelict bottle bears evidence of having been many months in water.

Action of Alcohol upon the Heart.

Two eminent physiologists in England, Dr. Parkes and Count Wollowicz, have been conducting experiments with to solve some of the problems relating the effects of alcohol upon the human system. The subject was a perfectly healthy man; and his diet, as to drink, was and coffee, or water, for the first eleven days.

the next six days; water again for six days; then for three days, brandy; and for the last three days, water only. Every day a specified quantity of alcohol was given, and great caution was taken in order that the effect of the alcohol might be clearly ascertained.

The most striking effect, as brought out by these experiments, was upon the circulation, and the power of alcohol to derange the action of the heart:-

"The average number of beats of heart in twenty-four hours (as calculated from eight observations made in four hours), during the first or water period was 106,000; in the alcoholic it was 100,000, or about 21,000 more; and in the brandy period it was 131,000, or 25,000 more.

Mrs. of Mr. (e. 90)

exceptional fever); with eight ounces, 93-6; and on the last day with six ounces, 94-7. On the first day after alcohol it sank to 80. The heart during alcoholic period did daily work in equal to lifting 15.8 tons one foot; on

In summing up the results of their experiments, Dr. Parkes and the Count testified that alcohol is not necessary to per-

in health, and the use even of one o
in twenty-four hours, is attended with serious consequences.

Kind of Swine to Breed

Every man familiar with the western markets will appreciate the soundness of the following views of a correspondent of the Rural Messenger: "Breed the hog that matures early, and by this I mean a hog that will begin to fatten as soon

you begin to feed, and will grow and th
as long as you are disposed to feed
I think no argument is needed to prove most profitable, if not the only kind will be profitable at all. Time was w we had no market for such agent at

we had no market for pork except at certain seasons of the year, and farmers made their arrangements to only have market once a year. But all these things have changed. Money and fat hogs are in demand every day in the year. Hence necessity and importance of having the that matures early. In order to do this we must get rid of the idea that we find a breed that will, in the proper time, make hogs to weigh five or six hundred pounds.

I have no doubt but there are several breeds that will do this, if you keep them long enough, but the question is whether it is better to raise (or attempt to raise) a hog that will weigh six hundred pounds, or one that will weigh three hundred.

or two that will weigh three hundred pounds each? And in answer to the question, how many hogs can be produced that will weigh three hundred pounds each one year old, easier and with less feed than twenty-five that will weigh six hundred dred pounds. Now, if this be true, the argument is vastly in favor of the three hundred pound hogs, as that size, they are fat and smooth as they ought be, will command as good a figure in the market as any other.

I am in favor of the farmer producing the hog that will give him the best return in the shortest time, and to do this, dream of mammoth hogs by the score must be abandoned, unless you seek notoriety, and not money.

Will you do me a favor?' said you Brooks to his wealthy friend, Simon Hausom. 'What is it, George?' said Hausom. 'I wish you to lend me twenty pounds, sir. Call at my coaching house,' rejoined Hausom. George was not long in paying the money.

respects. 'What security can you give me, young gentleman?' 'My personal security, sir.' 'Very well, get in here,' said Hanson, lifting up the lid of a large iron chest. 'Get in here,' exclaimed George, in a momentary impulse of enthusiasm. 'This is where I always keep my personal securities.

Little Falls Cheese Market.

(From the Cities Herald.)

CHESSE.—The delivery of dairy milk prices ranged from 13 to 14c. We hear of only two fancy lots reaching the latter figure, the bulk of the sales being effected at 13 to 14c. One thousand and fifty-five boxes were delivered. Much of both dairy and factory make is now brought into market in partially skinned. In the afternoon there was a good representation of both factory and buyers than last week, and the market was much more brisk. Prices did not go above those of a week ago, though they reached a higher figure than was quoted at that date. One factory sold last week for 12c, and another was offered for 12c, with the condition of 30 days' credit, but refused it. To-day the range was from 14 to 14c, though 15c was the ruling price. Upwards of 10,000 boxes were offered, and we learned of sales to the amount of 4,000 boxes, before the leaving of the train. The dealers generally, however, did not appear anxious to take much stock at figures above 15c. They say they have confidence in good quality, and are not looking for a decline, but they claim that they cannot afford to pay present prices without a still further rise in cable. All agree, however, that the prospect is good for a further advance. The make in England is fairly good, but the poor, and they are by no means overloaded with good cheese, such as our fall make has been.

The receipts in New York, last week, were 63,351 boxes, shipments, 13,931 boxes. Corresponding week, last year, receipts 53,139 boxes; shipments, 7,516.

Not long ago a family had been afflicted by one of those mysterious dispersions of Providence likely to occur in any family, and were making arrangements for a funeral.

A little son of the family was sent for the minister. Arriving at the parsonage, and confronted by the kind gentleman, the boy said: "Mr. Minister, Father wants you to come down to our house." "What for, my little man?" He was told to preach a funeral. "A funeral? Who is it that has died?" "It is my little brother." (Boo-hoo.) Your little brother, indeed: how did he die?" He wasn't old at all. (Boo-hoo.) He died a borney!

"What is the best attitude of self-defense to take?" said a pupil, putting on the gloves to a well known pugilist. "Keep a civil tongue in your head," was the significant reply.

CONCENTRATED LYE.

AMONGST the many imitations of this celebrated article, it is now the only one in Belleville, for which he has borrowed the name Extract of Soap—and by the way, perhaps he can oblige us as to what Extract of Soap means. Well, this individual, whose idea of Soap is from some what lacy, has got the name of Extract of Soap—largely developed, that he has tried his hand on the majority of popular articles which have been brought out for the last few years. This imitator, this borrower of other people's brains, trading on the reputation of an old established house, of which, by a strange representation of Providence, the management is running off its business on the public place, the general public will not be deceived by the name "concentrated," as this subscriber's address stands in plain view for all the leading druggists and chemists throughout the Dominion. The Last Milestones.

Sixty years through shine and shadow—Sixty years, my gentle wife, You and I have walked together.

Down the rugged road of life, From the hills of spring we started, And through all the summer land, And the fruitful autumn country, We have journeyed hand in hand.

We have borne the heat and burden Telling painfully and slow, my wife, We have gathered in our harvest With rejoicing long ago.

Leave the uplands for our children, They are strong to sow and reap; Through the quiet winter lowlands Now our level way we keep.

'Tis a dreary country, falling, Yet we are passing through, Not the road straight before us, And the miles are short and few, No more dangers to encounter— No more miles to climb, my friend; Nothing now but simple walking, Till we reach our journey's end.

We have had our time of gladness; 'Twas a proud and happy day, Ah! the product of our journey, When the King of God had given, Of His children's God had given, Looking forward to the end: "Joyful were our children, And our sons are noble men."

We have had our time of sorrow, And our time of anxious fear, When we could not see the miles, Through the blinding snow of fate, In the sunny summer country, When the King of God had given, Of His children's God had given, Looking forward to the end: "Joyful were our children, And our sons are noble men."

We have had our time of sorrow, And our time of anxious fear, When we could not see the miles, Through the blinding snow of fate, In the sunny summer country, When the King of God had given, Of His children's God had given, Looking forward to the end: "Joyful were our children, And our sons are noble men."

November.

BY ALICE CARY.

O winds! ye are blowing too rough too rough
Thrilling and chilling too soon the hours,
And the summer has not been long enough
For all your beauty, my flowers, my flowers
Not that I am sick of your much

For all your beauty, my dear, dear flowers
O frosts, ye are falling too soon on the leaf,
Dulling the grasses and dimming the gro
And the summer has been too brief, too bri
For all your cooling, my doves, my doves
Too brief, the summer has been too brief

For all your cooling and wooing, my doves
O waters ! hold to your fountains fast,
Nor faithless fly from the sedge-sown nook
And the summer has gone too fast, too fast
For all your sweetness, my books, my boys
Too fast, the summer has gone too fast
For all your ringing and slinging, my bro

O clovers, clovers I keep to your red
And stick your little leaves gay with dew
Too early the summer shades are fled,
For all your moaning, my insect crew—
Ah, all too early, summer has fled
For all your droning, my insect crew.

Oh I wane from your roundness not, fair maid
But make the land with your bright
bright,
And the summer has gone too soon, too soon

For all my joy because of the light—
Too soon, the summer has gone too soon.
For all my joy because of the light?

Ah! colder, closer the shadow slides,
And leaning sunward the daisy stands,
Like one o'er-reaching the icy tides
To catch the touches of loving hands—

Aye, reaching to catch o'er the closing tide
 That last warm touch of the loving hand
 And the daisy will die, and the waning moon
 Will fall in the sky, and the murmur
 In the grove
 Stand hushed, and my life will be o'er to
 For all my joy because of His love,

Who made the land, and the leaves,
Moon,
And all that is fair, with the light
love.

The Powers at Issue.

In view of the probability of the growing out of the action of Russia

 ting aside the treaty of 1856, it may interesting to glance briefly at the possessed by the Great Powers of for use in warlike operations. If should insist upon pursuing the course indicated, the whole continent

become involved in a dreadful war issue of which, so far as some of the batants are concerned, it would be possible to foresee.

Russia is a great military power
is upon land that she would put f

mightiest efforts. It is believed that capable of concentrating upon her in a comparatively short time, the number of 600,000 armed men, bringing into service a million necessary. In truth, the number she might summon to the stand practically unlimited. The only re-which she would be hampered

the ability to arm, equip and n-
them in the field. If her resouwealth were as extensive as those she would be invincible in war. I country is poor and the exchequer

state of chronic emptiness. She has undertaken great works of internal improvement within recent years, and for that purpose has borrowed largely in England, where it is suspected in some quarters that a portion of the money thus obtained has been employed in rehabilitating which was so seriously injured in the Crimean war. Whether this supposition is correct or not, she has paid a good deal of attention to her land forces, and is believed that the army is once more in a tolerable state of efficiency. The hand, consisted of 263 steamers sailing vessels, in which numbers included, 24 iron-clads carrying 148 the total number of guns being 3,600 of men 60,250.

ly shaken by the campaign of 18 since then the government has ex- self to place the army on a better. Its strength on a peace basis is 850, and it could speedily be augmen- 500,000, with a reserve equally large navy is comparatively insignificant.

sisting of 39 steamers and 20 sailing ships carrying altogether 784 guns and by about 14,000 sailors and marines. Though small it is powerful and did service in the Adriatic four years ago. Turkey has now an army of which could probably be increased.

THE number. It is well armed with modern weapons and if properly led is capable of good service. The fleet is commanded by an English admiral, and comprises fifty vessels of war, twelve of which are being armored ships. It is in good order.

The capacity of Italy would probably be to put a larger army in the field than 150,000 men in a war against England, but if well supplied with money she could do much more. The navy consists of 100 vessels, armed with 1,468 guns, and

The great and leading power in civilization against the semi barbaric hordes of Russia would be England, resources would be almost inexhaustible. Although she might not be able to keep an army of more than 150,000 men in the

or send even as large an expeditionary force to Austrian or Turkish territory, it must be composed of the best trained troops of Europe, the very flower and vigour of European manhood, who might be able to inspire confidence before a much larger number of less well-trained troops.

Trade is a Little Dull.

We find the following spicy but truthful little sketch in the Boston Commerce Bulletin. It forcibly illustrates that trade is dull, and also that a portion of the business community known as drummers

Commercial travellers, despite their almost unlimited resources and inventions to overcome obligations, yield to the presence of these stagnant times.

One of these gentlemen, who had returned from a trip for Thistle Bros. & Co. did not show a very large exhibit of credit to balance the liberal expense account allowed him by the firm, and Mr. Thistle, after having looked over his return, said:

"Mr. Rataplan, I am afraid you do not approach the dealers in the right way. You used to be very successful in this line. Now just suppose me to be Mr. Bigglesworth, and show me the way you intend to handle the house."

Accordingly Rataplan stepped out of his coat and vest and stepped into his inquiring:

"Is Mr. Rigger in?"

"That is my name" said Thistle, urbanely.

"My name is Ratsplan, sir; I represent the house of Thistle Bros. & Co. of London."

Mr. Thistle in his character of a west merchant, here arose, offered the sales a chair, and expressed his pleasure at seeing him.

"I am stopping with Overhang at the Slicker house, and have a fine lot of broken samples, which I would like to show you; think we can offer some special advantages," etc. And Ratsplan delivered himself of a neat speech in profane

"I should be pleased to see them."
 "Excuse me, Mr. Thistle," said Rat-nall. "I am afraid you do not understand western merchants just now; suppose we exchange places with me, and we will see the rehearsal!"
 "Certainly," said Thistle, and picing his hat, stepped out. Returning four or five minutes with his chair tilted
 back, he had a very comely and well-scrubbed planter on Thistle's polished
 and a lighted cigar in his mouth.
 Thistle looked a little staggered, and commenced—
 "Is Mr. Bigler in?"
 "Yes, he is," responded Ratnall.

ing a cloud of clear Connecticut into Thistle's eyes. "Who in— you!"

"I represent the house of Thistle & Co.," said the astonished merchant about a quart of smoke from throat.

"The blazes you do, are you one concern?"

"No sir, I am not."

"Well, its d-d lucky for you that are not, for I've had two drummers as customers in my store for the last month, and if I could get hold of a dozen more fellows that send 'em out this time, I'm darned if I wouldn't be clear, out of town."

That'll do, Mr. Ratsaplan," said Tom.
"I have no doubt that you did it for you could for the house. Trade is dull."

Things that I have Seen

I have seen a farmer build a house large that the sheriff turned him out of doors

I have seen a young man sell a farm, turn merchant, and die in an asylum. I have seen a farmer travel so much that there was nothing at worth looking after.

I have seen a man spend more money
folly than would support his family.

comfort and independence.

I have seen a rich man's son where his father began—peniless.

I have seen a young girl marry a man of dissolute habits, and repent long as she lived.

I have seen a man depart from the when candour and veracity would served him a much better purpose.

I have seen the extravagance and folly of children bring their parents to poverty, want, and themselves to disgrace.

I have seen a prudent, industrious retrieve the fortunes of a family, when husband pulled at the other end of rope.

I've seen a young man who despoiled the counsel of the wise and advice of the good, and his career in poverty and wretchedness.

I have seen a man engage in a law suit about a trifling affair that cost him in the end than would have roofed all buildings on the farm.

When Mr. Froude describes the fight Mary Queen of Scots from the field of Langside, he seeks to add to the effect making peasants by the roadside curer with reaping-hooks, forgetting such implements could scarcely be in peasants' hands in the month of May.

GO'D MEN MAKE GOD HONOUR

horses never vicious or intractable without a direct cause. If a horse is restive or timorous you may be sure that these faults arise from defects in his education. He has been treated either awkwardly or cruelly. Commence the education of a colt at his birth; accustom him to the presence, voice, and sight of man; speak softly gently; caress him and do not start him. All chastisement or cruelty costs the animal and makes him wild. They are good men who make good horses.

Prussians Repulsed by Riottti Garibaldi.

LONDON, Nov. 22.—News has been received from Paris by balloon up to midnight of Monday. The city is entirely tranquil. The Prussians, arrested for complicity in the riots of the 1st of October, were again seen. The supply of food has been limited to 40 grams daily. Horse flesh and vegetables are still abundant. All unwarmed men between the ages of 20 and 35 have been enrolled in the National Guard.

The siege of Montmédy continues. The German made a successful sortie on the 17th. Five hundred Germans were either killed, wounded, or captured. The besiegers have since withdrawn beyond the first of the fortifications.

An encounter occurred yesterday between the French and a reconnoitering party and 600 Uhlans at Tarn. No details have been received.

LUXEMBOURG, Nov. 22.—The bombardment of Thionville by the Prussians was very active today. The shells averaged 1300 meters. The cannons were very distinctly heard here.

More than 1,000 Uhlans had lately been driven into Belgium, where they were at once disarmed.

BRUSSELS, Nov. 22.—A magazine exploded early on Monday morning near the city, killing and wounding several soldiers.

LILLE, Nov. 22.—A Prussian scouting party of 60 Uhlans was attacked near St. Quentin and completely defeated.

A body of Prussian foot, horse, and artillery, 11,000 strong, is advancing on Amiens. It is supposed to be a portion of Manteuffel's command.

Some landwehr, with two squadrons of the 9th Hussars, were attacked by the French on the 19th near Chatillon and withdrew to the Chateau Vieux with a loss of 100 men and 70 horses.

TORNES, Nov. 22.—In the engagement at Chatillon on Monday the troops of the 10th Cavalry defeated the enemy, killing 130, including two colonels and one major. One hundred and sixty prisoners were taken, and hundreds of baggage wagons and oxen were captured. Four were killed and twelve wounded on our side.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Hopes of a Pacific Settlement.

Feeling in England.

The Excitement Abating.

Calmer Tones of the London Press.

Confidence Returning.

Russia withdrawing her Pretensions.

Thanks to the Emperor.

Russia Conciliatory.

LONDON, Nov. 22, 3 p.m.—The feeling this afternoon in regard to the Eastern question is much more healthy. Confidence is in good repair. In money circles, and in the press, there is a feeling of relief. The "Morning Post" officially denies that Russia has any intention of making a demonstration against the Empire.

A special to the "Times" from Berlin says that the Emperor, it is expected, will maintain a peaceful solution of the question between Russia and other powers relative to the Paris treaty.

Gavazzi on Infallibility.

Father Gavazzi, who is now in London lately spoke at a church in that city on the dogma of Papal infallibility. First of all he showed that the infallibility of the Pope was perverse in its nature and fatal in its consequences. No scriptural basis could be found upon which to establish the dogma. None but God himself could infalible. Moreover, it was said that a man were liar, and the Pope, being necessarily included among men, must be untruthful, and therefore not infalible. The Bishop of Birmingham had laid down the doctrine that the Pope was infalible because he was the successor of St. Peter. Now, it would be about as easy to prove that dogma from scriptural text as it would be to prove that he (Father Gavazzi) was successor to the Emperor.

The Church, it was said, should be built upon a rock; but Peter was no rock. The rock was Christ—therefore the Church was built on Christ, and not on Peter, as the Roman bishops would have their dupes believe. Jesus Christ alone was the shepherd of the universal flock, and not the Pope. A good pastor remained at his post.

IX do in 1848? He took the hint and fled from Rome—a beautiful figure for the successor of Peter! There were few of the great Roman Catholic bishops who maintained, after all, that the Pope was infallible. To say so in England was to commit a crime, it was to argue against reason and logic and truth: The new dogma was nothing else than the work of the Devil, and it could have been set on fire by any

Nothing could be more laughable than the doctrine propounded by a few of bishops at Rome, and certainly it is curious to think that the Pope should himself intallable only at the end of life. Father Gavazzi, in conclusion, spoke of the great efforts which are now being made to support the Free Church of Italy. The preachers of the true Gospel were in Rome, and neither the Pope, Dr. Manning, nor any of his subalterns could prevent the correct interpretation of Scriptures being placed before the people. They might protest but it would be useless. Rome belongs to Italy, and the Italians would dispose of their property as they thought best, heedless of the claims of the Romish hierarchy. In December next the Constitution of Rome would declared, and then would the truths of the Gospel be first preached in the city. The ready the Pope was on the move; he demanded to know if he could go free to Rome and return as freely to it, and it looked as if he meant travelling somewhere. If he did not like Jerusalem he might go to Conventry, and if he did not go to Conventry, then he might go to Jerusalem, and become the right man in the right place.

—Immense quantities of Kaolin dirt, not far from Augusta, Georgia, are being shipped North, and there can be no doubt but that nine tenths of the stuff is purchased for the purpose of adulteration. Kaolin is perfectly white and free from grit, and is the best article which can be used in the adulteration of flour, sugar, starch and candies. When properly manipulated it is exceedingly difficult to detect the presence of this earth. On account it has grown greatly in favor with dishonest merchants, and the quantity from Augusta is constantly increasing. About fifty tons of Kaolin dirt is now lying in one of the railroad yards awaiting shipment.

A correspondent of the London Times who visited Metz after the surrender, writes:—"I asked some of the townspeople whether they had really been reduced to great straits, and I received as an inviolable answer that the people had as much as they wanted of the necessaries of life, though they were deprived of many of the luxuries. Wherever I went I heard the

the commoner people the most extravagant reasons are advanced to account for Bazaine's supposed treachery; among the better class a modified version is given of the same idea. Whether the consideration is pecuniary, or whether he was the instrument of a dynastic intrigue, seems to be undecided; but from the very first neither the army which he commanded nor the population of Metz were his.

the population of Metz seems to have been the slightest confidence in him—indeed he was so unpopular with the inhabitants that during the whole period of the siege he is said never once to have entered the fortress, and his life was in such danger at last that he left his army secretly the day before the capitulation was known for fear of the personal consequences which the publicity of that disaster would entail upon himself.

As it was, he was recognized as he passed through the village of Ars, and pelted with mud by the patriotic women of that locality. I was positively informed by the man in whose father's house Lebaut lived during the siege that he had a dairy and poultry yard to the very end, and that he, Bazaine, and the superior officers lived in luxury to the last. They paid exorbitant prices for the delicacies of the table, but always succeeded in procuring them, and I was indignantly assured by a voracious citizen that only a week before the capitulation a friend of his had sold Bazaine a gâte des fois gras for 500 francs. The total amount spent by the army in the city was estimated at one hundred and

ALBION HOTEL,
MONTREAL, CANADA.
THE NEW ALBION HOTEL, the largest Hotel in Montreal, has just been opened under the most favorable auspices. Splendidly furnished & Thoroughly Ventilated. Notwithstanding the very large outlay in building and furnishing the Hotel, the old price of $1.50 per day will not be departed from. We, therefore, speak for a continuance of the patronage so liberally accorded to us during the last season.

Midnight Despatches.
THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Important Session of the English Cabinet.

No Disclosures from Beust.

What Beust Says.

Russian Opinion.

New York, Nov. 25.—A correspondent

telegraphs from London that the Cabinet is now in session. It is reported that great discussion prevails in the Cabinet,

although Gravelle is sure to be supported by the majority in his view on the present crisis. England's position will be firm in relation to the extreme way arbitrary violation of the treaty of 1856 by Russia, but at the same time leave the door open for negotiations with a view to a peaceful settlement of the points involved. It is doubted whether the Russian Government has authority for stating that Russia intends to pursue her purpose, and will serve

a personal object of her intentions upon

Turkey simultaneously with the execution of a reply to Gravelle's note. The resurrection of the English Ministry is imminent.

VIENNA, Nov. 25.—In the Hungarian diet,

to-day, Beust, in reply to an inquiry in regard to the Russian question, said he deemed it inexpedient to make any disclosures at present.

New York, Nov. 25.—The Tribune's

special correspondent at St. Petersburg says sharp notes from Vienna were received and answered. The Tribune's

London special says Beust did not disclose Gravelle's dispatch to Gravelle

until this afternoon. All the members of the Cabinet were present at the meeting, except Bright and Forster. There is great anxiety tonight. The only thing certain is that the Government wishes a delay.

The St. Petersburg Gazette says Russia

cannot withdraw her declaration nor leave it without practical consequences. Such a proposition from the English press only compels her to pursue more actively than before, her end. No one in Russia wishes for war. All classes would rather avoid it, but to humiliate Gravelle in the presence, unsupported by anything else

than references to the sanctity of a treaty

directed against the country.

Great Britain.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Robt. Wright & Co.,

chain and anchor makers at Sunderland,

have stopped. Much distress has resulted from their failure.

It is rumored that John Bright has resigned his position as President of the Board of Trade.

Mr. Gladstone was present at the Cabinet meeting to-day.

The appeal of the Rev. Mr. Mackintosh

from the sentence condemning him for humanizing tendencies, has been decided against him.

The City Council of Dublin petitions

for the pardon of the Fenian convicts.

CHINA

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Latest advices have been received from China. The news is more pacific. The firm attitude taken by England and France, in the matter of Fenian matter had the effect of encouraging the trading classes there, toward whom the natives had daily grown more independent.

ITALY.

FLORENCE, Nov. 25.—The Pope's assessment, which was recently printed at

Genoa, has been posted in prominent places

in Rome. One of the journals of the latter city, which reported the document, was promptly seized by the Italian Government.

The Italian artillery is to be increased

at once.

A son has just been born to the Duchess of Asse.

The War in France.

Yankee Arms for France.

Captured.

Prussian Reverse.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—A despatch from Versailles to Berlin, was received to-day, and says: The force of Paris have been entirely defeated for the past three days. The latter continues to be for military operations.

The American steamer "Ontario," which left this morning for Havre, carried by two

French frigates. Her cargo of munitions was intended for the equipment of the army of the Loire, whose movements it is said have been delayed by their non-arrival.

A German ship is said to be the "Lord

Brougham," has been captured off Deal.

The Frenchman who was arrested against

America were driven back by a division of the army of the North near Domart and Beauchamp. Advice from Tours state that 160,000 French troops are concentrated between

Tours and Montargis, probably marching on

Tours, to cut off the army of the Loire.

The French telegraph correspondent telegraphs that hundreds of regular troops

form part of the garrison of Paris, are daily

ordered to surrender, and since they are starving. Except the sick, they are all armed to the teeth. A world's complete list of Paris journalists to the 24th instant, have been received. La Temps gives some details concerning the quantity of provisions in the city.

It is a few days more food and munition will be exhausted. There is very little salt meat,

but dried meat for twelve days. There is enough of chocolate, but very little sugar

and oil is becoming scarce. Sugar, coffee and wine will last a long time yet. There is enough

material for bread on hand to carry the supply into January without any limitation in quantity and quality, but hereafter will be two months longer. The situation on the whole is pronounced good.

American Despatches.

Telegraphic Cable Laid.

Arms for France.

HAWAII, Nov. 25.—Though no official

notice has been given by the office of the Panama and West India Telegraph Company, there is good authority for announcing that the telegraph cable between Hawaii and

San Francisco has been laid, and telegraphic communication with Hawaii is complete. It is understood that messages of today's date have been forwarded from Hawaii to London.

New York, Nov. 25.—The steamer "Erie"

has received a large invoice of small arms

and other munitions of war intended for France.

She has now on board ten thousand Springfield

muzzle loading muskets, a part of those obtained from the United States Government at the recent public sale. She is to receive fifteen thousand more, and will probably clear from this port about the day of Monday.

Afternoon Despatches.

The Very Latest.

DESPATCHES TO 41 P. M.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Gortchakoff's reply to Beust's note, which was read in the Cabinet last evening, does not withdraw

Russia's claim to the modification of the treaty of 1856, but with reference to the violation of the treaty by other powers. He meets Gravelle's complaint that Russia desired

to revise the treaty with reference to the

violation of the treaty by other powers. He regrets that an appeal would have been successful.

The morning papers say the Ministry will stand firm.

BRASIL, Nov. 25.—The reports received here

from time to time announcing the large bodies of citizens, and in some cases regular bodies of citizens, have been received from

Paris, have come to the Brazilian attention

and are being turned back in the variety. These reports have been turned back inquiries by a despatch from the German headquarters at Versailles.

Winter Care of Stock.

The whistling wind of winter admonishes the frugal farmer that the care of his stock is now a matter of the first importance. It is peculiarly interesting to him in being done well. As the best supplied to the house store by its combination furnishes warmth to the dwelling and its inmates, so the combination of the whistling wind and the fire of the furnace furnishes the warmth that renders animals comfortable. It is not necessary to enter into any specific details of the matter, as the fact is too well established to admit of question.

To winter stock properly the first care should be to secure warm, well-ventilated stables of a matter of economy in the amount of food consumed, very much less being required of good stables than when fed out in the yard, and also less of what is fed will run to waste.

If it is desirable to use coarse food, such as corn, straw, or cut, first quality hay, its efficiency may be materially enhanced by cutting coarse short and feeding in the morning. The saving thus effected, will more than repay the cost of cutting, in addition to the benefit the cattle derive from the preparation of their food.

Consideration is the better condition and quality of the manure pile.

Too much care cannot be taken to keep in good condition in the early part of winter. If a person desires to feed well from the start to let cattle get poor and then try to bring them up. The usefulness of working cattle and much cows is very much injured for half of the succeeding season if they are allowed to get poor in the spring. The same effect is observable upon young cattle of any kind.

If grain of any kind is to be used, economy dictates beginning with it in moderate quantities in the winter. Upon cut feed, damaged in the manger or a box for the purpose, scatter and mix bran, shorts, and corn meal. There can be no doubt about its paying to grind. Mixing it with the cut feed ensures the consumption of the whole with much more relish.

Salt is necessary in winter as in summer—large quantities of uncertain intervals, but a supply when the demand cannot be taken by the stock as their wants dictate. Hard lumps to be broken off slowly with the tongue is the safest mode of supplying.

Too much attention cannot be given to regularity in feeding. Cattle suffer from hunger if neglected too long, and eat too much to be beneficial when they have been starved. Every farmer should make it a part of his religion through the winter to attend to feeding regularly.

Water is a very important item. If possible, it should be where access can be had to it at all times without obliging the stock to go out in the cold wind, through snow drifts and icy paths to supply this want. In extreme cold weather every observing farmer knows they do this with reluctance, often suffering long before venturing to the water. Species of cruelty to animals that should be avoided even at much labor and expense.

Another important auxiliary in wintering stock is a well stored corn supply and a few of its contents. Rats, clovered flies are the butler and sauce they relish with dry hay as you relish those articles upon the bread very dry (daily meal), and the prevalent farmer will not omit summer and winter culture to ensure a good supply for his herds.

Stables of all animals should be kept clean and regularly every day. This is essential to preserve health, and it is very early become painfully perceptible if it is not given to the stock. The carry comb and brush should be frequently used on neat cattle, as well as horses, to keep the pores of the skin in a healthy condition and ward off disease. In a word, cattle require constant and good care as a matter of strict economy, as well for their own health and comfort.

Opposition the Life of Trade.

Wm. Johnson

FINDS the old proverb that "opposition is the life of trade" to be a true one.

THE BEST WEEKS BUSINESS HE HAS EVER HAD BEING the past one.

The rapid sale of his

MINK FURS

is proof conclusive that they are all they are represented in his advertisements.

ONE THIRD

Of his large stock of MINK FURS has already been disposed of.

He assures the public that his sale of Mink at $30 $15, $12, $10 and $5, are the best, most-keen, old, damaged, or dyed. He gives the reason for his low prices as being to enable him to make people believe that there was no better thing the matter with them, also they could not be sold at such extraordinary low prices.

Johnson, 105-107, 109, 111, 113, 115, 117, 119, 121, 123, 125, 127, 129, 131, 133, 135, 137, 139, 141, 143, 145, 147, 149, 151, 153, 155, 157, 159, 161, 163, 165, 167, 169, 171, 173, 175, 177, 179, 181, 183, 185, 187, 189, 191, 193, 195, 197, 199, 201, 203, 205, 207, 209, 211, 213, 215, 217, 219, 221, 223, 225, 227, 229, 231, 233, 235, 237, 239, 241, 243, 245, 247, 249, 251, 253, 255, 257, 259, 261, 263, 265, 267, 269, 271, 273, 275, 277, 279, 281, 283, 285, 287, 289, 291, 293, 295, 297, 299, 301, 303, 305, 307, 309, 311, 313, 315, 317, 319, 321, 323, 325, 327, 329, 331, 333, 335, 337, 339, 341, 343, 345, 347, 349, 351, 353, 355, 357, 359, 361, 363, 365, 367, 369, 371, 373, 375, 377, 379, 381, 383, 385, 387, 389, 391, 393, 395, 397, 399, 401, 403, 405, 407, 409, 411, 413, 415, 417, 419, 421, 423, 425, 427, 429, 431, 433, 435, 437, 439, 441, 443, 445, 447, 449, 451, 453, 455, 457, 459, 461, 463, 465, 467, 469, 471, 473, 475, 477, 479, 481, 483, 485, 487, 489, 491, 493, 495, 497, 499, 501, 503, 505, 507, 509, 511, 513, 515, 517, 519, 521, 523, 525, 527, 529, 531, 533, 535, 537, 539, 541, 543, 545, 547, 549, 551, 553, 555, 557, 559, 561, 563, 565, 567, 569, 571, 573, 575, 577, 579, 581, 583, 585, 587, 589, 591, 593, 595, 597, 599, 601, 603, 605, 607, 609, 611, 613, 615, 617, 619, 621, 623, 625, 627, 629, 631, 633, 635, 637, 639, 641, 643, 645, 647, 649, 651, 653, 655, 657, 659, 661, 663, 665, 667, 669, 671, 673, 675, 677, 679, 681, 683, 685, 687, 689, 691, 693, 695, 697, 699, 701, 703, 705, 707, 709, 711, 713, 715, 717, 719, 721, 723, 725, 727, 729, 731, 733, 735, 737, 739, 741, 743, 745, 747, 749, 751, 753, 755, 757, 759, 761, 763, 765, 767, 769, 771, 773, 775, 777, 779, 781, 783, 785, 787, 789, 791, 793, 795, 797, 799, 801, 803, 805, 807, 809, 811, 813, 815, 817, 819, 821, 823, 825, 827, 829, 831, 833, 835, 837, 839, 841, 843, 845, 847, 849, 851, 853, 855, 857, 859, 861, 863, 865, 867, 869, 871, 873, 875, 877, 879, 881, 883, 885, 887, 889, 891, 893, 895, 897, 899, 901, 903, 905, 907, 909, 911, 913, 915, 917, 919, 921, 923, 925, 927, 929, 931, 933, 935, 937, 939, 941, 943, 945, 947, 949, 951, 953, 955, 957, 959, 961, 963, 965, 967, 969, 971, 973, 975, 977, 979, 981, 983, 985, 987, 989, 991, 993, 995, 997, 999, 1001, 1003, 1005, 1007, 1009, 1011, 1013, 1015, 1017, 1019, 1021, 1023, 1025, 1027, 1029, 1031, 1033, 1035, 1037, 1039, 1041, 1043, 1045, 1047, 1049, 1051, 1053, 1055, 1057, 1059, 1061, 1063, 1065, 1067, 1069, 1071, 1073, 1075, 1077, 1079, 1081, 1083, 1085, 1087, 1089, 1091, 1093, 1095, 1097, 1099, 1101, 1103, 1105, 1107, 1109, 1111, 1113, 1115, 1117, 1119, 1121, 1123, 1125, 1127, 1129, 1131, 1133, 1135, 1137, 1139, 1141, 1143, 1145, 1147, 1149, 1151, 1153, 1155, 1157, 1159, 1161, 1163, 1165, 1167, 1169, 1171, 1173, 1175, 1177, 1179, 1181, 1183, 1185, 1187, 1189, 1191, 1193, 1195, 1197, 1199, 1201, 1203, 1205, 1207, 1209, 1211, 1213, 1215, 1217, 1219, 1221, 1223, 1225, 1227, 1229, 1231, 1233, 1235, 1237, 1239, 1241, 1243, 1245, 1247, 1249, 1251, 1253, 1255, 1257, 1259, 1261, 1263, 1265, 1267, 1269, 1271, 1273, 1275, 1277, 1279, 1281, 1283, 1285, 1287, 1289, 1291, 1293, 1295, 1297, 1299, 1301, 1303, 1305, 1307, 1309, 1311, 1313, 1315, 1317, 1319, 1321, 1323, 1325, 1327, 1329, 1331, 1333, 1335, 1337, 1339, 1341, 1343, 1345, 1347, 1349, 1351, 1353, 1355, 1357, 1359, 1361, 1363, 1365, 1367, 1369, 1371, 1373, 1375, 1377, 1379, 1381, 1383, 1385, 1387, 1389, 1391, 1393, 1395, 1397, 1399, 1401, 1403, 1405, 1407, 1409, 1411, 1413, 1415, 1417, 1419, 1421, 1423, 1425, 1427, 1429, 1431, 1433, 1435, 1437, 1439, 1441, 1443, 1445, 1447, 1449, 1451, 1453, 1455, 1457, 1459, 1461, 1463, 1465, 1467, 1469, 1471, 1473, 1475, 1477, 1479, 1481, 1483, 1485, 1487, 1489, 1491, 1493, 1495, 1497, 1499, 1501, 1503, 1505, 1507, 1509, 1511, 1513, 1515, 1517, 1519, 1521, 1523, 1525, 1527, 1529, 1531, 1533, 1535, 1537, 1539, Midnight Despatches. The War in France.

London, Nov. 29 (noon).—Thus far no confirmation of the reports of a battle near Montargis has been received.

A special despatch says that the battle now raging between Chateaufort and Montargis is costing profound anxiety. No reliable intelligence can be received. The French reports are confident of victory, but Prince Frederick Charles' army, it is known, has been immensely reinforced, and the German reports are equally hopeful. It is supposed a decisive fight is now going on in the vicinity of the Forest of Corvonn.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Cabinet Meeting.
England agrees to a Conference.

Early Action Demanded.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—At a Cabinet Council yesterday, a despatch was read from Count Bernstorff, German ambassador, proposing a conference to be held at London, also a note from Count Bernstorff to Earl Granville, stating that Prussia recommended a meeting at Berlin. The despatch was read, on condition that a conference be held.

Count Bernstorff's second note was read a third time.

The cabinet agreed to Earl Granville's reply expressing the willingness of England to agree to a conference provided Russia withdrew from Count Bernstorff's note.

VICTORIA, Nov. 29.—It is reported here that recent declarations from St. Petersburg demand preparation to be made by the European powers for early action.

American Despatches.

Cable Expedition.
Post Master General's Report.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29.—Latest advice from Kingston, Jamaica, state that the cable company, "Telegraph and Cable," is to leave on Monday, Nov. 21st, for St. Thomas, and will lay the cable from St. Thomas to Puerto Rico, and from Puerto Rico to San Juan.

The cable company is to be the principal cable to be laid in the Caribbean Sea.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—The most important feature of the Postmaster General's report may be summed up as follows:

First, He reiterates the recommendation of his last report for the repeal of the franking privilege, and presents an array of statistics in support of them.

Second, He speaks of the importance of the telegraph system, but declines recommending its adoption till the franking privilege is abolished, as he does not believe that any other system can be made efficient with this incumbrance on the service.

Third, He gives gratifying statistics to show that the telegraph system is now being used in the case of the telegraph system, and that the telegraph system is now being used in the case of the telegraph system.

Fourth, He alludes to negotiations for the establishment of an international postal union system with England.

Fifth, He states that the expenditures exceed the receipts of the department some seven million dollars.

A Sortie in Force.
French Driven Back.

French Beaten near Amiens.

LONDON, Nov. 29.—The following, dated at Versailles early this morning, has been received by telegraph.

On Monday and Tuesday the four forts around Paris particularly those of the north maintained a serious cannonade on the city of Paris.

On Monday the French were repulsed and driven back behind their fortifications. The entire French line in these sectors was only 700 yards and a few hundred men, while the French lost 1,000 in prisoners alone.

The French have been badly beaten near Amiens. Their army was totally routed and lost towards Arras. Four French guns were captured.

On Monday, the 28th, the main body of the army of the Loire attempted to force a passage towards Fontenay-le-Comte, but were repulsed. They first encountered 100 Prussians camped at Beaulieu, 20 miles north of Fontenay-le-Comte.

The French were repulsed, heavy losses in killed, wounded and prisoners, especially the latter. Falling in this attempt, the army of the Loire was defeated.

VERSAILES, Nov. 29 (noon).—It now appears that the greater part of the French army has been repulsed and driven back behind the Prussian 100 miles north of Fontenay-le-Comte.

The New Steamer "Picton."

This fine vessel, the property of the "Bay of Quinte and River St. Lawrence Steam Navigation Company," arrived here last week from Montreal, where it was built. She brought with her in tow, the damaged steamer "Gortchakoff," which was towed to the wharf and then to the shipyard.

She has much more carrying capacity than the "Gortchakoff," being able to carry nearly as much as the "Gortchakoff," which was built for the purpose of carrying a large number of passengers.

Length, 172 feet; width of hull, 26 feet 6 inches; water line, 10 feet 6 inches; depth of hold, 10 feet 6 inches; and having a very spacious boiler, capable of generating an ample supply of steam, is expected to make about ten miles per hour more than the "Gortchakoff."

Her saloon is to be built, and furnishing completed, in our harbor during the winter; after which on the opening of navigation, she will take her place on the route from Trenton to Montreal. We heartily wish her long and successful career, and due profit and success to her captain and crew.

Capt. Smith, the late popular commander of the "St. Helen," will have charge of the "Picton,"—Picton Times.

New Principles of Medicine
[Vis: Radway's Ready Relief, Regulating Sarsaparilla Remedy.]
Dr. Radway's Remedies are prepared on em principles, and that is why they stop plain to cure the most dangerous diseases so rapidly, so little inconvenience to the patient. Some—temperance boys in their advertisements, are selling new in their medicine—that is, are all to be found in the same and other diseases published formulas are copied taken from Pharmacopoeia & hence, they claim superiority for their pills, pectorals, and sarsaparilla—many to a lot of imperfect, inert, and worthless. Were it not for the new principles in obtaining medicinal virtues from newly remedial agents, progress in the science of

would be a slow coach. Take, for instance, popular remedial agents of the day—~~scarcely~~ its adjuncts, forming the official compound purgatives, of aloe, jalap, &c. Physicians, pharmacoputists, physiologists, all, more or less, deem these agents as uncertain, unreliable. Materia Medica is deficient of good, sterling medicines. The formulas of preparing pills are based on specious theories, and the rules to put up specious medicines on the old rules per tributed are contributing nothing of the solid. Remedy's Ready Relief, Sarsaparilla by Henry Newland, originated on New York
